

ANNA ZILBOORG CLASS

June 27-28, 2008

Friday evening – All About Stranding - Everything you need to know about two-colored knitting will start with how to slash without a sewing machine. Then we'll practice two-handed knitting in the round, carrying two colors in one hand and carrying one color over long distances. Finally, we'll knit backwards for those times when going in circles cannot be done. - 5:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Saturday - Strip Knitting - Knitting in strips, attached as you go or knit together later, vastly increases designing possibilities as well as providing that rarest of knitting pleasures: instant gratification. Ambidexterity-- the ability to knit left-handedly as well as right-handedly-- makes many kinds of knitting more pleasurable: strips, entrelac, bobbles, heel turns etc. Lots of ways to use up small amounts of yarn, among other things. 9:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Class cost will be 75.00 for both days.

Anna Zilboorg is well known for her use of color and design in her knitting creations. She has pursued knitting styles and patterns around the world. She has written 8 books so far including - Fancy Feet, 45 Fine and Fanciful Hats, Magnificent Mittens. Her book Knitting for Anarchists is an analytic look at knitting techniques and “rules”. She lives in the lovely Blue Ridge Mountains in Virginia.
